Joyce Tenneson's dramatic series of close-up portraits of women, taken with a Polaroid 20 x 24 inch camera, are imbued with a haunting and ethereal quality. The portraits - often partially nude, draped in fabric, with unusual headresses and objects in their arms - are eerily illuminated, and represent a bold departure from her earlier work.

相对于这位艺术家的另一本书Illuminations来说，这本更好些。虽说还是她的一贯风格的作品--有意制造浓厚的宗教色彩。
