Women of Our Time is a glorious photographic celebration of 75 of the most creative, humane, controversial, witty, brave, beautiful and inspirational women of the twentieth century. These revealing portraits, by an array of distinguished photographers, depict their subjects at pivotal moments in their careers, and are accompanied by brief biographies that highlight not only their distinctive contributions and achievements, but also how they were viewed by their contemporaries. Beautifully designed, Women of Our Time is a magnificent tribute to women who have helped to define the modern age.
