Product Description

The country needs real men " A book by and with Ray Dragon!

Real men love to show off what they have " up close and personal " bulging muscles and plenty of flesh. The combined masculinity of the men in this book is bursting out of the pages even when it's closed! Powerful men pose naturally for the camera without any guilt; some of the exposures are close ups, detailed and with an incredible use of lighting. The models include stars from Colt and Titan. This is an explosion of erotic photography for fans of real men.
