Wisdom literature played a crucial role in the evolution of traditional societies, contributing to the structure of society and to the acceptance of new ideas within a culture, a function that has become increasingly understood. Old English wisdom literature is the focus of this volume, which offers an bibliography of the scholarly criticism between 1800 and 1990 of a group of largely secular poems comprising the metrical "Charms", "The Fortunes of Men", "The Gifts of Men", "Homiletic Fragments I and II", "Maxims I and II", "The Order of the World", "Precepts", "the metrical "Proverbs", the "Riddles of the Exeter Book", the "Rune Poem", "Solomon and Saturn", and "Vainglory". A General Introduction investigates debates between scholars and establishes overall trends; it is followed by the bibliography proper, divided into chapters, each with its own introduction, focusing on a major text or collection of texts, with entries arranged chronologically. Dr Russell Poole teaches in the School of English and Media Studies at Massey University, New Zealand.
