With people living longer and longer, Dementia is now at the forefront of medical research. In answer to this changing trend, Informa Health Care and Dr. Scharre present Long-Term Management of Dementia. A stand-alone resource for diagnoses treatment and management issues for the patient suffering from dementia. Neurologists, psychiatrists, geriatricians, as well as secondary caregivers, including nurses and social workers, will find, Long-Term Management of Dementia a perfect fit for health care professionals requiring a more in-depth look at this debilitating disease.
