Based on the novel by Rex Pickett, Sideways follows Miles (Giamatti) and Jack (Church) on their trip through the Santa Barbara wine country, the week before Jack's wedding. Trouble ensues with wine and women (played by Virginia Madsen and Sandra Oh) and the duo comes to some profound realizations as they come to terms with maturity. The Newmarket Shooting Script book includes the complete screenplay, original pieces written exclusively for the book by novelist Rex Pickett and Rolling Stone film critic Peter Travers, and a study guide prepared by the screenwriters.
