His closing chapter, "Global and Intercultural Performance," is completely rewritten in the light of the post-September 11 world. Fully revised chapters with new examples, biographies and source material provide a lively, easily accessible overview of the full range of performance for undergraduates at all levels in performance studies, theatre, performing arts and cultural studies. Among the topics discussed are the performing arts and popular entertainments, rituals, play and games, as well as the performances of everyday life. Supporting examples and ideas are drawn from the social sciences, performing arts, post-structuralism, ritual theory, ethology, philosophy and aesthetics. User-friendly, with a special text design, "Performance Studies: An Introduction" also includes the following features: numerous extracts from primary sources giving alternative voices and viewpoints; biographies of key thinkers; student activities to stimulate fieldwork, classroom exercises and discussion; key reading lists for each chapter; and, 20 line drawings and 202 photographs drawn from private and public collections around the world.
