This text documents in photographs the history of the New Orleans Jazz and Heritage Festival, revealing the personalities and scenes which have defined the festival for over 20 years. The work details such performers as Mahalia Jackson, Irma Thomas, Stevie Wonder, Clifton Chenier, Professor Longhair, Dr John, Zachary Richard and the Neville Brothers. It describes the Jazz Fest from its modest beginnings in 1970, when the crowd numbered only several hundred, to its current stature as one of the largest cultural festivals in the world, drawing almost a quarter of a million people a year.
