Glamour model and writer of erotica, Joanna took the old house for peace and solitude, but never anticipated that her powerful desires would be excited so quickly by the salacious attentions of another woman. Soon, she is swept into an intense sexual adventure, where bizarre fetish-fantasies become a reality of strict bondage and sexual humiliation. On realising how far she has been drawn into a sinister coven, and what the price of temptation has become, it's too late to back out. And so her slavery begins to those who thrive on her pleasures and torments, as vampires thrive upon their blood.
