Paranormal experiences told by the people who lived them are revealed in these three collections of haunting encounters. Sceptics will ponder where reality stops and another dimension begins after reading these spine-tingling and compelling stories. "Real-Life Stories of Supernatural Experiences" includes personal stories of an old sea captain who always leaves a puddle of seawater in the kitchen of a house where he once lived; a man who kept going to work even though he had died; and a little girl who cannot leave the place where she died tragically, a place where the family currently living prays for her final release. "Ghost Stories from Around the World" features stories of a deceased man in an old house in Ireland who saves the little daughter of the present tenant from a fiery death; a house in Belgium where children long gone still play; and the military base in England where sounds of a terrible battle from WWII still echo through the night. Touching stories of treasured pets who return to comfort their grieving owners and warn them of imminent danger, fire, or intruders are included in "Personal Stories of Departed Pets", as are many more supernatural experiences and encounters with beloved pets that simply cannot be explained away.
