Traces this cult heart-throb's career from a would-be Stockton boxer, through his work with David Lynch, to his rapid rise as a matinee idol on his successful "Chris Isaak Show. Perhaps best known for his haunting music in the David Lynch films "Wild at Heart, Blue Velvet, and "Twin Peaks, Chris Isaak has developed an enthusiastic cult following since the mid-1980's when he gave up his prize fighting aspirations to write songs.
