Canoe across large lakes, up and down rivers and rapids; labor over portages and through a miasma of blackflies; bask in the golden evenings of the Subarctic. In this account of an 80-mile canoe-trip - which begins at Reindeer Lake on the Manitoba/Saskatchewan border, continues into Nunavut past the treeline, and ends on Hudson Bay - Peter Kazaks conveys the experience of being in the north by describing the daily details that bring the trip to life. He captures the flavor of an extended wilderness canoe trip and reflects on living in unfettered wilderness. The reader will also grasp something of the serene beauty of the barren lands and begin to understand why its intoxicating nature keeps drawing some back.
