RIDING is the established primer on proper hunter-seat horsemanship for English riders of all ages. New black and white photos throughout the text better illustrate the instructions from this riding instructor and former U.S. Equestrian Federation judge. An updated resource directory helps locate the best instructors and equipment across the country. Kate Delano-Conдах Decker is a riding coach, British Horse Society instructor and competitor in dressage and combined training. She lives in Moorestown, New Jersey.
