Tailored for the literary-minded cat lover, this charming celebration of the relationship between cats and their smitten owners is packed with amusing and enticing quotes about human-feline relationships. People who may have a website devoted to their cats will find themselves in great company, with quotes from cat "slaves" Raymond Chandler, Edgar Allan Poe, Theodore Roosevelt, Martha Stewart, and Mark Twain. In addition to hundreds of quotations on the subject of cats and their owners' passionate enslavement to them, the book also includes anecdotes about notable cat owners and what they named their pets.
