History of Western Ethics, second edition, is a full-scale overview of Western ethics from the Pre-Socratics to contemporary ethics in the Anglo-American and Continental contexts. Each of the twelve chapters is written by a distinguished philosopher and provides an accessible yet thorough overview of the major figures and ideas throughout important periods in the history of ethical thought. Previously available in hardback only, this second edition of Becker and Becker's History of Western Ethics, which includes thoroughly revised essays, a new chapter on twentieth century continental ethics, an updated bibliography and further reading section, should be welcomed by students and educated readers alike. John M. Cooper, Professor of Philosophy, Princeton University; Scott Davis, Assistant Professor, School of Religion, University of Southern California; Alan Donagan, Doris and Henry Dreyfuss Profess

书评

为应付某项考试而被迫浏览的一本小书。
你会发现，外国人也写这样的书：只看些二手文献（甚至是些较次的二手文献）就写介绍性的文字，而不管他有没有读过原作者哪怕一本著作。因此，书中出现的一些“常识”性错误乃至基本划分偏差也就情有可原。就当做是用英文概览（复习）...
