Two new titles in our award winning Touch and Feel series that use birthday and mealtime to reinforce primary learning skills through sensory perception. Would you like to touch a birthday balloon? Turn the pages to enjoy more party textures. With easy-to-read text, superb full-color photography, and textures that can be touched again and again, Touch and Feel Birthday and Touch and Feel Mealtime are the next two titles in this award-winning series designed encourage children to explore the world around them.
