"Lily's looking for adventure, and the great outdoors is just the place to find it. Convinced she'll become the next famous outdoorswoman, Lily asks her parents for tons of camping and survival gear for Christmas. But little does she know she's headed for an adventure she'll never forget. When Lily and her family are stranded in the worst storm ever on the way to a mountain cabin for Christmas, survival becomes the name of the game--in more ways than one. It's like their very own "Swiss Family Robinson" adventure--minus the pirates, the shipwreck, the animals, and stuff. In the end Lily learns it's not important what and how much you get, it's how you handle what you have and being grateful for it."
