This delightful book introduces preschoolers and beginning readers to the idea of alphabetical order and helps prepare them for higher-level dictionaries. Clear, engaging illustrations bring words to life.

- 900 age-appropriate entry words selected by the Editors of the American Heritage® Dictionaries in collaboration with educational consultants
- Playful example sentences capture children's attention
- Multicultural characters appear throughout in familiar, family-based situations
- Updated with colorful new art by well-known children's illustrator Maggie Swanson
