See what happens when Mog has to pay a visit to her least favorite person: the "Vee. Eee. Tee." Mog doesn't like going to the vet's. But when she hurts her paw chasing a butterfly, she needs to make a visit. So Mog makes sure that everyone knows just how unhappy she is to be there. The works of Judith Kerr have been delighting children for nearly forty years. the best-selling creator of the Mog the Cat books, Kerr is also known for When Hitler Stole the Pink Rabbit and The Tiger Who Came to Tea, one of the most popular books for children ever written. Her books, which have become modern classics, have sold over five million copies worldwide.
