From the terrifying battlefield specters at Little Big Horn to a possessed vaudeville palace in Tampa, from ghostly apparitions in President Garfield's home in Ohio to hauntings of President Clinton's White House in DC, Michael Norman and Beth Scott tell stories so terrifyingly real that even the most sceptical reader will believe. The authors have travelled coast to coast, getting stories from every state in the Union, interviewing witnesses first-hand, and spending terrifying nights alone in haunted houses. In their fifteen years of research, Norman and Scott have discovered America's most astounding ghost stories.
