On a bright Easter morning, a bunny finds a pretty basket sitting on the path through the meadow. Whose could it be? The bunny hops through town, visiting families and their little ones as they prepare for joyful Easter celebrations. Finally, she hops into the arms of her mommy the Easter Bunny and discovers the true owner of the lovely basket. Sprightly illustrations, adorable baby animals, and sturdy three-dimensional scenes on every spread make this book a holiday treat for the whole family.
