This title is suitable for children of ages 4 to 8 years. This heart-warming story explores the many ways in which children feel unique and special. Mrs Matthews' first grade class begins making Christmas decorations, but because Jennifer is Jewish, Mrs Matthews allows her to make Hanukkah decorations instead. Jennifer enjoys the attention and creates 'The Only One Club', of which she is the sole member. When her classmates want to join, she is resistant until she realises that each of her friends is also 'the only one' at something. As she inducts them into her club she reveals the unique qualities that make each of her classmates extraordinary. Through this touching story, young children are encouraged to discover and treasure their own uniqueness and to actively look for special qualities in others beyond race or culture. A medley of pencil, watercolour, acrylic paint, and pastel illustrations bring this inspiring and humorous tale to life.
