This title is set in Etretat, France. On the balcony of a hotel room, a man is keeping watch. He stares out at the cliffs from which his mother jumped to her death 20 years ago. During the course of a single night, the narrator stirs up the memories of his childhood, his lost youth, his brutal father, his runaway brother, his years in Paris...trying to understand for himself the question: "Why am I still alive, who has rescued me?"
