In this ingenious book, children are offered the opportunity to get to know the duo firsthand, over a plate of cheese and crackers! Readers are invited into 62 West Wallaby

Street for an afternoon they'll never forget. Every page is written entirely in the first person and presents Wallace & Gromit to a new audience in a fresh and original manner - with a few surprises along the way, of course. This unique gift book is a visual feast, bringing every glorious detail of the characters' world to life.
