A child's reaction when Mommy brings a new baby home. In this latest book from author Steven Layne, a new baby is an annoying, attention-receiving, loud nuisance, but the baby's older sibling must "pretend" to love the baby, since everyone insists he must. After going through the motions and acting as a loving and caring older sibling, to his surprise, he finds that he does in fact love the baby after all This picture book can teach children how to be patient with and honest about their feelings of welcoming a newborn home.
