Allie Kimball is super excited to start sixth grade. Her best friend is going to be in the same school, and she is going to try out for the soccer team. But she soon learns that middle school is a very different world, full of strange new beasts, like glommers—girls who never go anywhere alone—and norks—nerds whose social disease affects all who come near them. After some shocking surprises from old and new friends, Allie realizes its time to define herself before she gets lost in the jungle of middle school. With the help of humor, candor, and some crafty definitions, Allie sets out to navigate sixth grade.
