Corduroy is excited as he has been invited to his friend's house for a sleepover. First he packs his things into an overnight bag, then he goes off. Corduroy and his pals are in for a fun night. They all play games, build a blanket fort, and watch a movie. But when it is time for bed, one of Corduroy's friends can't quite fall asleep. After a bedtime story and song, he goes off to dreamland. Children will enjoy looking at the seven lively scenes in the book, and lifting and peeking beneath forty fun flaps.
