The Day by Day Bible can be a great tool to help your child get in the habit of spending time with God each day. Take a few minute each day with your child and explore this daily devotional, filled with simple to read texts and lively, colorful illustrations. The reading for each day include a story that unfolds to reveal God's purposes and plans. Get your child involved with "Talk Time," which offers straightforward questions to help your child relate the story to his or her daily experiences, and "Prayer Time," which offers simple prayers that you and your child can pray together.
