21 drinks + 21 years ÷ 24 hours = A New Life Plan It's tradition in the PAK fraternity that you have to down 21 drinks on your 21st birthday. Bret's big b-day happens to be on the night of PAK's biggest blowout ever. The college is threatening to shut down their house. But the guys won't let that happen until they party like rock stars one last time. No one sleeps until the kegs are kicked, the hot girls get hot-tubbed, the PAKs mess up some dude from Fiji, and Bret does his 21. But somewhere between the beer bong and the shot of Captain Morgan, Bret begins to wonder how he came to this school. And what he really wants out of life.
