When Juliette starts an online zine for her school, she dives right in with her usual enthusiasm. It’s a huge hit! E-mails are pouring in. The best ones are smart, funny, anonymous....Who could be writing them? It must be...it has to be...Noah. Sigh . Noah is the cutest, most popular boy in school—he even has his own band! And his e-mails are great—he likes all the same music and books as Juliette, even the same websites. It’s fate! Surely all will be revealed at the school’s Battle of the Bands. Too bad Juliette has to miss the battle. Too bad she has to go on a ski trip with her family and their friends Mr. and Mrs. Brooks. Too bad Mr. and Mrs. Brooks are bringing their dorky son, Tyler, along on the trip. Too bad Juliette can’t see the great guy who’s really writing those e-mails....This fun, involving story, with a strong female protagonist and a timeless story of a star-crossed romance, will be a huge hit with tweens everywhere.

- Reflects girls' real interests
- Up-to-the-minute topic, timeless story
