Stampley Enterprises is pleased to introduce Billy and Baxter, a boy and his dog always ready for adventure in the big, busy world outside their door Billy and Baxter make their debut in four separate Adventure Word Books: All Around Town, Learn to Build, At the Airport, and On City Streets. Each title features seven scenes from daily life, on two page spreads packed with color, motion and detail. Children ages 2-6 will turn to these pages time and again, to visit friends Billy and Baxter and to join them in exploring the sights and scenes around their home. These colorful books sharpen observation skills by challenging budding readers to find Billy and Baxter on every page. They build vocabulary, with 70 items named and pictured in every book. And they show children that the world around them is an exciting place, especially when Billy and Baxter come along
