Delicate watercolors evoke the wonder of childhood as Willow, the gentle bear, prepares for a perfect Christmas with all of his friends on Paradise Farm.

On the morning of Christmas Eve, Willow jumps out of bed, joyful to see that snow is falling. There's much to do - gathering holly, wrapping presents, and searching for just the right tree to trim with Little Pig Pink and the rest of his animal friends. Soon it's time to hang up the stockings and snuggle back into bed - with hopes that Santa Claus will come in the night.
