This book tells the story of Mary Frances, a little girl who learns all sorts of things from fairy helpers who live in her house. The Knitting People surprise Mary Frances with some delightful lessons in knitting and crocheting. They are such good lessons that almost before she knows it, Mary Frances has made the loveliest hats and sweaters and socks for her dolls. This classic is part of the Mary Frances Books for Children, a collection of instructional craft books for children, all of which were originally published in the early 1900s.
