A must-read for everyone looking for that big break in radio or TV.

Starting Your Career in Broadcasting is the complete guide to breaking into this competitive field—and staying there. It's packed with advice from top personalities including Bob Costas, Chris Berman, Larry King, Jim Lampley, Bob Kingsley, Rene Syler, Troy Aikman, plus station managers and other broadcasting pros, all sharing stories of how they got their start in broadcasting. Often hilarious, sometimes moving, always insightful, these anecdotes offer first-hand guidance on making the right career choices. Chapters explore specific on-air and behind-the-scenes jobs; broadcasting schools and what they teach; what news and program directors seek in job applicants; tips for being effective on the air; how an aspiring broadcaster can buy airtime; weathering the ups and downs of a competitive industry; and much more.

- Advice from top names including Bob Costas, Larry King, Troy Aikman, many others
- Career opportunities on the air and behind the scenes
- Includes profiles of top broadcasting schools, with tuition costs, Web sites, more
