In a revealing flashback, King Lucifen reminisces about the shaky beginnings of Lost Saga and the late Dr. J, a mysterious and talented programmer who overcame much adversity to develop the framework for the game--which led to the creation of Yureka. But enough about the past! The end of the semifinal matches is upon our heroes, as John and Rapha continue their battle with Roto and Yureka. As the fight builds to a grueling climax, whose sacrifice will be great enough to win?
