A Bram Stoker Award winner. Five strangers from across America are about to come together and open the door to a place of evil that they all call home. Inexplicably, four men and one woman are having heart-stopping nightmares revolving around the dark and forbidding houses where each of them was born. When recent terrifying events occur, they are each drawn to their identical childhood homes, only to confront a sinister supernatural presence which has pursued them all of their lives, and is now closer than ever to capturing their souls.

小时候买来只为刺激，前几天重读才看出其中深意。五个主角有的被欲望控制，有的在对家人的爱之中保全着自己。如果换作是我，进入了这所”房子“，会变成什么呢。
