Gabe, an immigrant from Guyana, revisits the past and undertakes a spiritual quest in the company of his Canadian-born daughter. From tundra-forested Canada, he delves into his youth spent in a sugar plantation next to the Edenic Corentyne coast by the Atlantic Ocean, growing up in an Indian family struggling to live traditionally in faraway Guyana. Generations collide in the ever-changing world of East vs. West, North vs. South, as Gabe and other characters face new realities, new awakenings.
