In downtown Montana, the old West is being rocked by the entrance of espresso-drinking, poetry-reading transplants from Seattle. And three sexy city women are enjoying a night on the town at a chic coffee house. When a gang of cowboys mosey in looking for trouble, they find trouble of the best kind...And these boys are primed and ready to ride. As each couple embarks on a scorching night of passion and play, each woman finds her ultimate pleasure - and discovers kinky new thrills she never dared to imagine. Because when it comes to knocking boots, cowboys do it best...
