Featuring eight stories as diverse as the authors' backgrounds, this fast-paced compilation is the first urban fiction collection of all female narratives. This engrossing and entertaining compendium offers an edgy look into the views and lifestyles of dramatically different women. The authors include Vanessa Abigail Martir, Joy Leftow, A.D. Stokes, Justice Mejia, Leah Whitney, Princess Madison, Teres Baldwin, Sharron Doyle, and Tri Smith. Each story included is delightfully fresh and insightful, while maintaining the urban appeal of this collection.
