From three experts in teaching comes a 50 strategies text that is useful for preservice and inservice teachers up and down the grade levels and across the curriculum. The text embeds strategies within a theoretical framework of active learning. The step-by-step format helps teachers prepare easily and troubleshoot to maximize success. Strategies are referenced by their usefulness for English learners and readers at different stages of development. The text includes examples from many subject areas and grade levels. The accompanying CD contains templates to assist teachers in using the strategies.
