The Baltimore Album quilt (also known as a presentation quilt) first achieved popularity in 19th century America. They were often made to mark special events or as keepsake gifts for friends and family. Quilting has now become one of the most popular craft hobbies in the world, and the Baltimore Album style has had a popular resurgence. "Baltimore Elegance" contains 25 brand-new designs that will appeal to both novices and experts alike. Also included are six skill-building lessons that will help readers create beautiful, expressive and personalised quilt projects. This is a must have volume for quilting fans everywhere.
