A child you know needs a hug today . . . it may even be yours Everyone wants to give the kids in their lives something that will remind them how very much they are loved.

When you give a Hugs for Kids, you give a treasure of stories, poems, an Bible verses that build self-esteem and encourage tender hearts. You can't be with your children every minute to help them through their everyday struggles, but you can encourage their hearts with stories of children just like them. Children will be inspired by the story of Jenny who encouraged her whole church to do something they thought they couldn't; they will be uplifted by the story of Jeremy who learned that he, too, had special gifts from God. Written by best-selling author Mary Hollingsworth, this book is written at a level that children can read on their own (ages 6-9) or that you can read to them. Share a hug with your special kid today.
