When Rosie's parents tell her they are divorcing, she wonders what she can do to keep them together. She tries being her cheeriest self, keeping her room clean, and making good grades, but none of her plans work. By the time her parents separate, Rosie is sad, frustrated, angry, disappointed, and confused. One day she visits the school counselor and joins a group of children with divorced parents who meet and share their feelings, experiences, and helpful ideas. By the end of the year, Rosie has learned many good answers to the question "What can I do?"
