Now in bilingual form, this entertaining book for young children features two adventurous toddlers on an afternoon romp through their backyard. As they blow bubbles, pull their wagon, dig in the sandbox, play hide-and-seek, ride on swings, and play with toys, young readers discover what comes in twos: hands, feet, eyes, ears, legs, and arms. Charming illustrations, crafted from colorful felt and embroidered by hand, create a warmth and softness that will captivate youngsters. Fabric illustrations ... add ... to this engaging ... board book. The text is simple, repetitive, and straightforward ... perfect for the intended audience. School Library Journal
