Yes, L is for Louisiana and this child's first alphabet book combines words and photographs for a fun trip through the ABCs that also shows some of the sights and symbols of the state famous for alligators, bayous, and Cajuns. Colourful photographs from throughout the state show the people, places, and yes, even the wonderful food of the Pelican State. The author has selected some of the most interesting and popular items to emphasise here with an easy-to-read text sure to draw the attention of young readers.
