Hippity, hop. Hippity, hop. Easter's here, no time to stop. Hippity, skippity, down the road with eggs for Chipmunk, Bee, and Toad. Bunny is so intent on making his deliveries in a timely manner that he stumbles over Turtle--trippity flippity flop!--and shatters and scatters all his Easter eggs. Luckily, his ingenious friends cleverly put all the broken pieces together to form one enormous Easter egg, which they give to Bunny as a very special surprise!
