The work of R.M. Kliment and Frances Halsband Architects is always executed in a manner that is at once spare and engaging; with a spirit that is neither restricted nor self-indulgent; neither mean nor flamboyant. There is no intention to startle the masses, nor does it embody moderation. It is work that finds its own niche - economically, imaginatively, and purposefully. The firm's work bears an extraordinary sense of concern for human presence, demonstrating that architecture is a serious calling. The deep professionalism that it brings to its work, the intensity of its craft, and the disciplined artistry it embodies are only part of the picture. Its example and its active advocacy for thoughtful design are making a significant impact on the architectural profession.
