Transform tatters into treasures with this third volume of the acclaimed Flea Market Finds series. Designer Patti Sowers Uhren continues to inspire readers with simple, inventive ways to create stunning home decor at garage sale prices. There are 150 makeover projects with "before" and "after" photographs showing the amazing transformation from flea market fare to the kind of eclectic home accessories you find in pricey boutique shops and design showrooms. Readers will pick up on how to spot potential "treasures" when cruising flea markets and tag sales. Illustrated with rich photography and expansive layouts, the book features "instant ideas" that require little or no time to accomplish.
