B-boying is the only thing seventeen-year-old Kid B has ever been any good at--but that's nothin' to floss about in his racially charged eastern Texas town in the rust belt. He's been called "wigger" and "jigaboo," but race doesn't matter to Kid. Or his krew. What matters is that they represent at the upcoming Throw Down--one of the most cutthroat hip-hop dance competitions in the nation--and that they hold their own against rivals Magno Clique, the roughest gang of b-boys in town. Over a hot summer, friendly challenges between the two gangs turn bloody. And though he's just trying to keep it together with his messed-up family, his friends, and his new girlfriend, Kid is forced to figure out the next steps in his life.
