Set amidst the outsider worlds of present-day downtown New York, 1990s Los Angeles, and 1940s Mexico City, "Like Son" is the not-so-simple story of a love-blindness shared between a father and a son. Born a bouncing baby girl named Francisca Cruz, Frank Cruz is now a post-punk thirty-year-old who has inherited his dead father's wanderlust, unrequited love, and hyperbolic tendencies. Felicia Luna Lemus is the author of the novel "Trace Elements of Random Tea Parties" (Farrar, Straus and Giroux), and her writing has appeared in various magazines and anthologies, including "A Fictional History of the United States with Huge Chunks Missing" (Akashic Books). She currently teaches writing at The New School and lives in the East Village of Manhattan.
